

British Columbia's Health Authorities

Each health authority provides a broad range of health related services and programs. Please visit the appropriate websites below to learn more about the health authority you live in and how you can be involved.

Vancouver Coastal Health Authority

General: www.vch.ca

Get involved: www.vch.ca/get-involved/

Island Health Authority

General: www.viha.ca

Interior Health Authority

General: www.interiorhealth.ca

Fraser Health Authority

General: www.fraserhealth.ca

Northern Health Authority

General: www.northernhealth.ca

Providence Health Care

Providence Health Care is a non-profit organization, providing services in partnership with Vancouver Coastal Health and the Provincial Health Services authority.

General: www.providencehealthcare.org

Provincial Health Services Authority

Provides province-wide health care services, including the BC Cancer Agency, BC Centre for Disease Control, BC Children's Hospital, BC Mental Health and Addiction Services, BC Provincial Renal Agency, BC Transplant Society, BC Women's Hospital & Health Centre, and Cardiac Services BC.

General: www.phsa.ca

First Nations Health Authority

This new health authority has taken over the administration of federal health programs and services previously delivered by Health Canada's First Nations Inuit Health Branch – Pacific Region, and to work with the province and First Nations to address service gaps through new partnerships, closer collaboration, and health systems innovation.

General: www.fnha.ca

British Columbia Health Authorities

